

Rev. Michael Wright visits AFP Medical Center

Rev. Michael Wright, an expert on hospice care from England, visited the Armed Forces of the Philippines (AFP) Medical Center last March 14, 2007. He is conducting a study on the hospice movement worldwide. As part of his research, Rev. Wright went to AFPMC to conduct interviews regarding the hospital's hospice practices. He also interviewed Kythe regarding the foundation's program on hospice care.

Rev. Michael Wright welcomed at the AFPMC

Rev. Wright gives a talk on hospice to AFPMC doctors, nurses and other hospital staff.

Rev. Wright interviews some mothers with terminally-ill children.

Rev. Wright and Kythe Child Life Projects Officer Cynthia Manzanares talk about Kythe's program on hospice care

Rev. Wright with (L-R); Dr. Jacquelyn Ramolete , Aida Calagui, RN (AFPMC-Kythe Child Life Coordinator), Capt. Maribel Montessa-Develos, MC (Consultant for Child Life Program), Girlie Garcia (Kythe Executive Director), and Dr. Baby Allado (Ayala-Alabang Hospice)